SENIORS

Motto: Qui non proficit, deficit.

Class Colors: Red and White.

Class Flower: Red and White Roses

Class Poem

At last we're Seniors young and brave
So proud of our high station,
Soon we'll set sail upon life's wave
And without hesitation.
Are we prepared to face life's fight?
We'll not fail! No, never!
We're true to thee dear Red and White
Old Thirty-three forever.

Qui non proficit, deficit,
This let our motto be.
And you our school we'll ne'er forget,
No matter where we be.

Our high school days are nearly past,
From these loved walls we will depart,
Yet will our dearest memories last
Cherished in every heart.
Of this dear school we'll ever sing,
Which gave us education;
To thee we'll make our praises ring,
Eternal adoration.

CLASS PROPHECY

(Taken from ALUMNI NEWS, 1943)

John Phillip Sousa's successor, Hugh Clark, will present his annual band concert at Chautauqua, July 4.

Robert Hitchcock, ambassador to England, in a recent radio broadcast, reports that the women of England regard favorably the candidacy of Madeline Russell for the presidency of the United States in 1944.

In a recent international musical review held in Paris, Elial Catlin of the United States won the title of the "World's Greatest Jazz King."

The famous Metropolitan Operatic Star, Josephine Van Vleck, has returned recently to New York from a world tour.

Wm. "Kingfish" McConnell, Senator from Kentucky, has begun his second week of filibustering in an attempt to prevent action on the Bill for the Benefit of Ethiopians.

Mary Lou Coe, noted flier, will attempt to establish a non-stop speed record tomorrow in a flight from New York to London. She is being sponsored by the Austin Motor Company.

Harold Soudan and Lawrence Carlson, efficient Jamestown detectives, succeeded last night in frustrating attempts of the underworld to kidnap Marion Drotz, Blues Singer of radio fame, who is appearing in person at the Palace Theatre this week.

Gilbert Johnson has accepted the position as official scorekeeper of the National League for the next five years.

Florence Falldine, brilliant legal mind, has been chosen judge of the Court of Appeals, the highest court in New York State.

Richard Nichols, president of the International Western Union Corporation, has again been appointed the executive head of that company.

Robert Klock, manager of the Klock Furniture Companies, reports a big increase in sales during the past year.

Lillian Peterson has resigned her position as Superintendent of the Syracuse University Hospital to become the bride of a well known business man in Lakewood.

Harold Marsh has moved with his family to the farm formerly owned by Glenn Swanson at Boomertown.

The most interesting tennis meet of the season will be staged in Hollywood today when Jeanette Freed, the famous amateur player meets the professional, Dorothea Scheible.

President of the United States, Arthur A. Swanson, has appointed as his private secretary, Jennie Alexander, formerly of Lakewood.

The Book of the Year Club has selected Everett Daily's latest novel "A Romance a Day," as the outstanding work in fiction for the past year.

Rhea Hobart, dean of Lakewood College for Women, has announced two new members in her faculty for the coming year—Miss Eleanor Olsen, Professor of Latin, and Miss Martha Nelson, Physical Director.

Dr. Thomas Purcell, chief surgeon and, Helen Wheeler, matron of John Hopkins Hospital are spending their vacation at their respective homes.

Virginia Griggs and Margorie Corstange of the World Wide Travel Bureau suggest as a fitting gift for graduates of Lakewood High School their specially planned two week tour of the globe.

Beth Borgerding, head of the Borgerding Business Institute, is mentioned in this year's "Who's Who" for her philanthropic venture of founding a business college for the natives of Africa.

CLASS SONG

VERSE I

Bright school days, with pleasure filled,
Have quickly passed away.
'Tis with regret we from thee part
To go upon life's way.

CHORUS

We all must leave this school now,
About the world to roam.
We'll ne'er forget dear L. H. S.
Though we are far from home.

VERSE II

In after life, should trouble rise
To cloud the sunny skies,
How bright will seem, thro' memory's haze,
The happy days, gone by!

—Tune: Auld Lang Syne

CLASSES

SENIOR NEWS

The Senior Class of '33 entered into the final year of High School life with the following officers assuming the leadership.

President	Hugh Clark
Vice President	Madeline Russell
Secretary	Arthur Swanson
Treasurer	Thomas Purcell
Student Council	Elial Catlin, Mary Louise Coe

Under the guiding hand of our Senior sponsor, Miss Scheible, we feel that the events of our Senior year have been most successful.

Both the boys and the girls made a good record in Basketball during the season.

Late in the fall a masquerade party was given for the Juniors at the Village Hall.

On April 6th the annual Senior play, in this case "The Nut Farm," was presented under the direction of Mrs. Babcock.

In the latter part of April the Senior mothers gave a card party at Coe's Tea Room for the benefit of the Class.

Our regrets upon leaving the happiest and most interesting period of our high school life are lessened by the knowledge that because of the co-operation and spirit of our class as a whole we have accomplished many things.

We leave a hearty welcome and our best wishes for our successors, the Senior Class of 1934.

—M. D., '33

POST GRADUATE NEWS

The Post Graduate Class of this year has 18 students.

President	William Ingleson
Vice President	Virginia Stafford
Secretary	Paul Faulkner
Reporter	John Cole
Student Council	Mary Gardner, Jimmy Gardner

Early in the year we held a Weiner Roast at the home of Lura Bucklin and a little later we sponsored a dance at the Village Hall. The girls of the class had a basketball team which ran as leaders throughout the tournament but were not considered the winners because of the new ruling set forth by the Board of Education. The boys joined with the Seniors in a Basketball tournament and also had a non-competitive Volleyball team.

The members of the Post Graduate Class are proud of being members of the largest P. G. class which has ever been in Lakewood High School. Under the capable supervision of our sponsor, Miss Sprague, we feel that we have had a very successful year.

—P. F., '32

JUNIOR NEWS

The Junior Class of 1933 started off along the road of adventure and learning under the guidance of Miss Pauline Cook. At the time of this writing there were 39 adventurous souls nearing their goal, the end of the beginning of the Senior year. To help Miss Cook we elected the following officers:

President	Kenneth Lewis
Vice President	Leslie Nelson
Secretary	DeEtta Ogilvie
Treasurer	Charles Guertin

In order to have our share in the student government of the school, Mary Francis Isbell and LaVerne Wade were elected to represent us in the Student Council. Because of the great interest of the class in sports of all kinds, boys and girls sports managers were necessary. Eleanor Peterson and Westley Burk filled these positions. The Seniors gave a Hallowe'en party in honor of the Junior Class and the evening was spent in dancing and playing games. The Junior Chapel for the year was in the form of a radio broadcast, and proved to be one of the best given.

Our class has shown a great interest in the social life of the school. After the St. Bernard football game on November 4, we sponsored a dance at the Village Hall. We wish the Seniors luck and only hope that we may have as successful a Senior year ourselves.

—D. O., '34

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The class of '35 with an enrollment of 64 has been very active in athletics as well as social life this year. In September our officers were elected as follows:

President	Phillip Irvine
Vice President	Evelyn Bemus
Secretary	Verne Nelson
Treasurer	Margaret Brook
Student Council	Audrey Nelson, Herman Knowlton

Owing to the large number of pupils, our class was divided into two groups for roll-call. The larger group (boys and girls) in the study hall with Miss Bahringer as sponsor. The other group (boys) in the laboratory with Coach Swearingen. On October 14, after the Jamestown reserve game we sponsored a dance at the Village Hall which proved to be quite successful in more ways than one.

In the Inter-class Basketball Tournament the boys and girls were victorious. There have been many new-comers to the class since the beginning of the term and a few of our old classmates have moved away.

This year's activities were brought to a close by a dance on May 6 at the Village Hall, which attracted a large crowd. We hope to resume our activities next year with all of our old class members present.

—M. B., '35

FRESHMAN NEWS

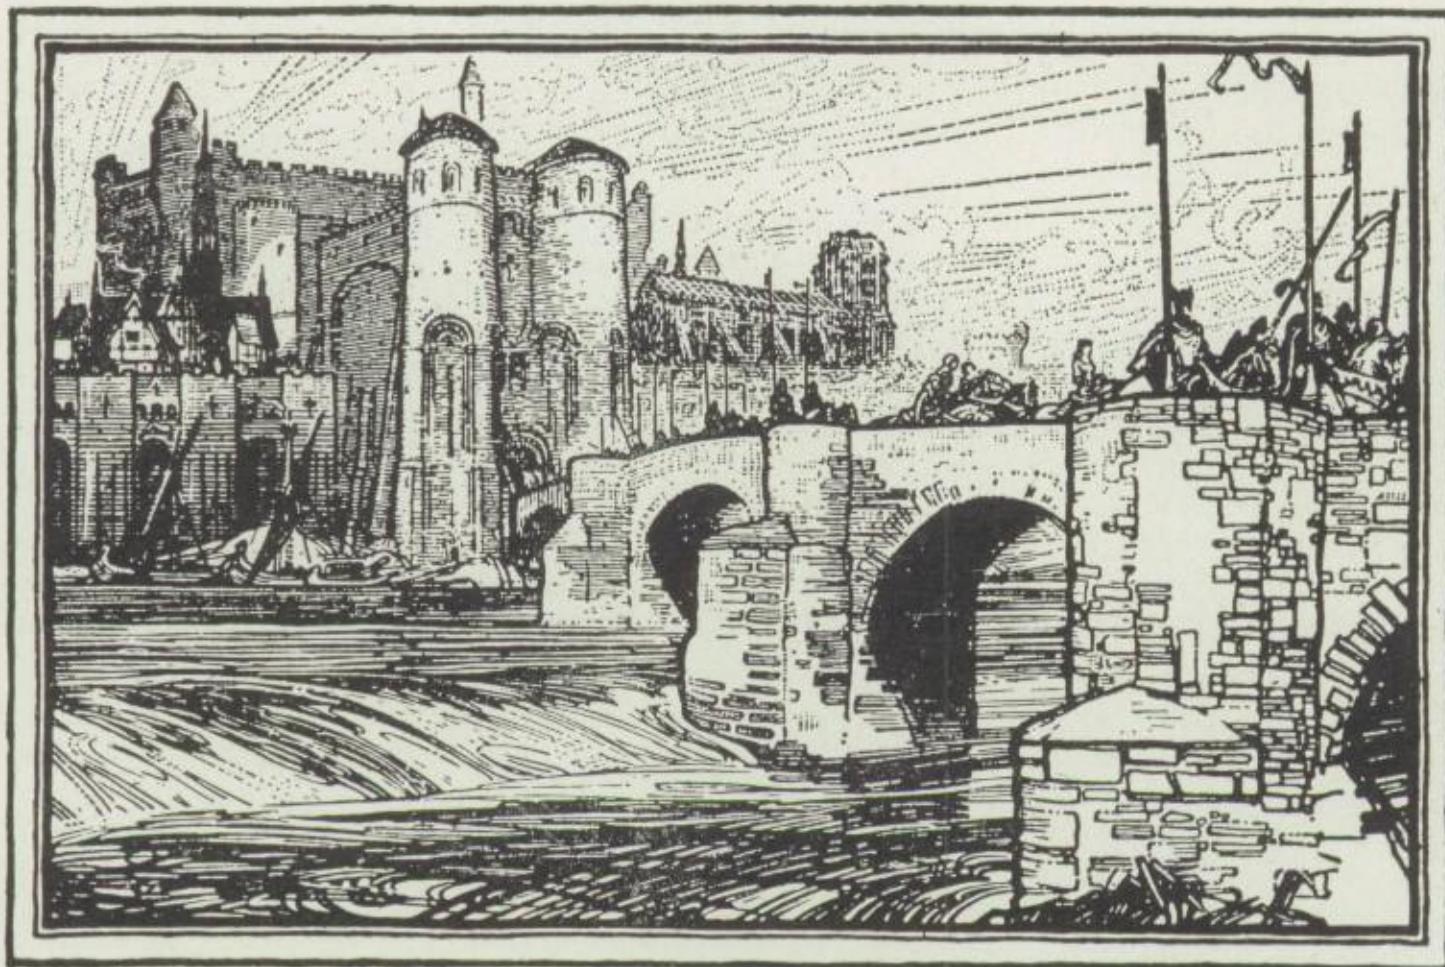

Freshman Class held a meeting last September and elected their class officers.

President	Albert Bowen
Vice President	Dorothy Hobart
Secretary	Margarite Smith
Treasurer	Donald Henry

Margarite Smith left school and Margaret Clark was appointed in her place. We held our annual party at school in December and enjoyed the good times and refreshments but were much disappointed because we were not raided. The boys and girls have basketball and volleyball teams and although they did not win, put up a good fight. In January the Freshman boys had charge of Chapel and gave a Sherlock Holmes mystery. The girls had Chapel February 17 and gave a silent version of Midsummer Night's Dream. We have enjoyed a splendid year under the able sponsorship of Miss Cooper and Mr. Swanson.

—M. C., '36

ACTIVITIES

SENIOR PLAY

The Nut Farm was given on April 6, 1933, under the direction of Corrie Wicks Babcock.

It was a comedy in three acts centering around the Barton Family. The family consists of Willie (Robert Klock), a most ambitious young chap who yearns to be a film comedy director; his married sister Helen, (Madeline Russell) whose husband (Arthur Swanson), has thirty thousand dollars and who is ambitious to become a movie star and their mother (Florence Fall-dine), the patient though frequently sorely tried third member of the group, carry on most of the plot and action of the comedy. Helen's husband who has sold a grocery store in Newark, New Jersey, with the intentions of buying a nut farm in California is the center of the plot, for it is his thirty thousand that enables Helen to get a chance to be a star. By the time a slick film producer (Hugh Clark) an effeminate scenario writer (Everett Daily) a bored leading man, his own wife and his brother-in-law get through with that thirty thousand, all Bob has left is a memory and not a happy one. Fortunately Willie saves the day and the money by a cute little bit of movie magic which is aided by the work of his girl friend (Agatha) graduate of the Methodist Seminary (Mary Lou Coe) and everything ends happily.

The other members of the cast were: Ezra Sliscomb (Agatha's father, William McConnell), Harold Van Horton (Elial Catlin) and Hilda (Rhea Hobart).

The prologue was given by Lillian Peterson.

—M. L. C., '33

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra has made splendid progress this year under the capable leadership of Miss Flohr.

At the beginning of the year officers were elected as follows:

President	Robert Klock
Student Council Rep.	Madeline Russell

The orchestra consists of the following members:

Paul Warner	Violin	Dick Nichols	Saxophone
Lura Bucklin	Violin	Betty Ann Beal	Saxophone
Madeline Russell	Violin	Robert Klock	Saxophone
Olive Ingleson	Violin	Ross Butler	Cornet
Minor Marsh	Violin	Elial Catlin	Cornet
Arthur Swanson	Piano	Archie Anderson	Trombone
Virginia Stafford	Clarinet	Donald Keefe	Drums
Donald Falldine	Clarinet	Mac Campbell	Bass Horn
Robert Stitt	Clarinet	Albert Bowen	Bass Viol

We regret that we were unable to attend the music festival at Fredonia because we felt ourselves fully capable of competing this year.

The orchestra also wishes to extend to Miss Flohr their best wishes for her future. We'll miss you.

—M. R., '33

CARDINAL NOTES

This year was the second for the regular publication of the "Cardinal Notes." We feel that we may call it a newspaper, for at last it has reached most of the requirements of a newspaper. The staff has had a hard time this year as all but one or two members had had no experience whatever in this type of work. They have tried their very best to make a successful paper and hope that it has met the approval of everyone.

We thought it best to elect the staff for next year this year. By doing this, the staff for next year will have a basis on which to work, especially since they have helped to edit the last issues of the paper this year. We are sure that the staff of next year will find as many new experiences and will have as much fun publishing the paper next year as we have had this year.

The members who have composed the staff this year are:

Editor-in-Chief	Florence Falldine
Assistant Editor	William McConnell
Business Manager	Everett Dailey
Publishing Manager	Philip Irvine
Feature Editor	Margaret Brook
Exchange Editor	Ethelyn Pettit
Sports Editors	Betty Jane Vernon, Everett Dailey
General News	Martha Nelson
Contributing Editor	Charlotte Klock
Social Editor	Eleanor Peterson
Alumni Editor	Jane Gardner
Art Editor	Robert Austin
Typist	Eleanor Olsen
Advisors	Miss Cooper, Miss Cook and Mr. Swanson

—F. E. F., '33

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club elected officers in September with President, Madeline Russell; vice president, Jeanette Freed and secretary and treasurer, M. F. Isbell.

"The Belle of Bagdad" was the operetta chosen which was given by the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs on March 8. The proceeds from the operetta were divided between the two clubs. The girls made their own uniforms of blue and white which are the club's colors.

We were very much disappointed not to be able to attend the Music Festival this year at Fredonia. However, we lived through it.

We certainly are sorry to lose you Miss Flohr. We'll miss you lots.

—M. F. I., '34

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Boys' Glee Club officers:

President	Robert Nichols
Vice President	Harold Soudan
Student Council Rep.	Everett Dailey

The Boys' Glee Club has made excellent progress this year in part singing, working up from two-part to four-part work.

Several of the outstanding parts in the annual operetta were taken by members of the Club who did exceptionally well, supported by the tenor and bass of the chorus. The other major event to which the Glee Club looked forward, Music Week at Fredonia, turned out to be a disappointment even though "Old Man Depression" saw a larger representation there this year than ever before.

As this is written there are three more or less important events in the offing: first, the Band Concert, May 23rd, in which the Glee Clubs will participate; second, the annual P. T. A. June Festival, June 13th, at which both clubs will sing; and last and most enjoyable, the annual Music Department Party at Midway Park, which is being planned to use the usual financial surplus present at the close of the Glee Club's career.

The members of the Boys' Glee Club join the other members of the Music Department in expressing their sincere regret that the village is reduced to such financial condition that it finds it essential to eliminate music from our school life.

This will mean the passing of such popular entertainments as the Christmas and June Festivals, the Operetta, and other social events which we have enjoyed so much and have gradually built up a reputation of which we have been justly proud.

—K. L., 34

DRAMATIC CLUB NEWS

The Dramatic Club, a newly formed organization, has been successful in all it has undertaken this year. The officers elected at the beginning of the year are as follows:

President	Madeline Russell
Vice President	James Gardner
Secretary	Virginia Stafford
Treasurer	Betty Jane Vernon
Sponsors	Miss Cooper, Miss Flohr

The vacancies in the offices of Vice President and Secretary were filled by Margaret Brook and Jane Gardner. The motives of the club were not to produce plays alone, but to be instructed in stagecraft, costumes and make-up. All the scenery and costumes for the plays which have been presented were made by the members.

Our first undertaking was the sponsoring of the play, "Children of the Moon," presented by the Community Players of Jamestown.

In January we gave three one-act plays, "Thursday Evening," "The Singing Soul," and "The First Dress Suit," after several weeks of rehearsing under the capable leadership of our sponsors.

The Dramatic Club has been divided into three groups, each group to produce a short one-act play. The first play, "A Terribly Exciting Affair," was presented at a chapel program on May 19. The two remaining groups presented their plays June 6, as a laboratory performance for parents and friends.

—M. B., '35

OUR BAND

The Lakewood High School Band began its third year of work in September. The officers were elected as follows:

President	Hugh Clark
Vice President	Ralph Bennett
Secretary and Treasurer	Betty Ann Beal
Student Council Rep.	Ross Butler
Student Directors	Hugh Clark and Elial Catlin

The band has played at every home basketball game during the last season. It also played at the much looked-forward to football game with Falconer on Thanksgiving Day.

The Band regrets not having been represented at the Fredonia Music Festival this year, but they had a band concert on May 24, which was very successful.

Several new members were added in January. There are now 40 members in the Band.

The Band has been under the capable leadership of Arthur R. Goranson and every member wishes to show his appreciation to him for the work he has done.

—R. D. H., '33

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop II has completed a very successful year under the leadership of Miss Dorothea Scheible. The Troop won ten dollars as one of the first prizes in a contest for selling doughnuts. Many badges were earned during the year by the girls.

The Troop won the window decorating contest held in Jamestown. Troop I has also completed a successful year under Miss Sally Howe.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Troop 31 of Lakewood has taken in many scouts during the past year and they are all striving for rank of an Eagle Scout. The Boy Scout camp which was held at Camp Shin-a-wan-a at Lighthouse Point was attended by only 6 members of Lakewood, but they had fun. Ask any of these 6. So let's have more attend camp this coming year. The Scouts held a contest a few weeks ago. The results:

Knot Tying—John Le Suer
Second—Lawrence Olsen
First Aid—Robert Clark
Second—Curtis Mather and Robert
Bootey

Oath and Laws—Frank Taylor
Signaling—Robert Bootey
Second—Wallace Carlston
Fire by Friction—Donald Henry
Second—Wendell Lewis

Lakewood attended the scout court of awards which was held at the St. Luke's Church at Jamestown. A Jamestown boy was the only one to receive his Eagle rank. Some Merit Badges and medals were awarded to our troop for the work we did.

HI-Y

President	Verne Waid
Vice President	Ralph Bennet
Secretary	Phillip Irvine
Treasurer	Donald Keefe
Reporter	Kenneth Lewis
Advisor	Mr. Swanson

The Hi-Y Club during the first semester held two dances, printed football schedules, and gave baskets to the poor at Christmas time. Soon after the opening of the second semester the club held a father and son banquet. Fifteen new members have been enrolled. The last regular meeting of the year was held Monday evening, May 8. Owing to the defects in the old constitution a new one was adopted at this meeting.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council which represents the student body, is composed of a representative from each room and organization in the school. The Council discusses any complaint or idea which is brought up, and tries to remedy, or carry out by either alteration or giving reasons for not doing so. The members are elected by popular vote of the students. The following people are members:

Advisors	Miss Cook, Mr. Mathewson
Senior Representatives.....	Elial Catlin, Mary L. Coe
Junior Representatives.....	M. Francis Isabelle, Laverne Waid
Sophomore Representatives.....	Herman Knowlton, Audrey Nelson
Freshman Representatives.....	Donald Keefe, Virginia Vittur
Orchestra Representative	Madeline Russell
Girls' Glee Club Representative.....	Florence Falldine
Dramatic Club Representative.....	Arthur Swanson
Band Representative	Ross Butler
Boys' Glee Club Representative.....	Everett Daily

The meetings this year have been held in the Domestic Science room during lunch hour, which has proved a very beneficial time.

The Council has proceeded in sponsoring a Social Hour, held every other Friday. During this hour a checker tournament has been held and dancing has been enjoyed by the students.

The purpose of the Student Council is to bring better co-operation between students and teachers. We hope it will continue as a well chosen organization for our school.

“L” CLUB

The “L” Club organized March 24, 1933, with the purpose of bringing about a closer and more friendly union between lettermen and to create greater respect for the Block “L”.

OFFICERS

Coach C. E. Swearingen.....	Honorary President
Hugh Clark	Student President
Duncan Simons	Vice President
Ross Butler.....	Secretary and Treasurer

Officers for the “L” Club will be elected the last meeting of the previous term and for a term of one year.

For membership a candidate must earn a block “L”. The block “L” is 8 inches square made of Chenille.

The Basket Ball “L” is red with a black background. Twenty-four quarters are required to earn a Major letter and 12 for Minor letter.

The Football “L” is black with a red background. Twelve quarters are required to earn a Major letter and 6 for a Minor letter.

Meeting were voted to be held the first Friday of the month after school, and the third Wednesday of the month after supper.

Spring Football Practice has started with a squad totaling thirty-five.

LAKEWOOD PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The younger generation have no doubt had a sneaking suspicion that it was needed and now the parents have actually admitted it for the very newest thing in P. T. A. is Adult Education. The Study Group under Mrs. Edward Bootey's leadership is going strong.

By the looks of things around the corridors May 4th, the P. T. A. held a pretty successful Summer Round Up.

But the best thing this year has been the Welfare work. The proceeds from a card party held at Coe's was added to the fund the teachers already had and was used for shoes, rubbers, stockings, etc., for our school children that needed them.

Our monthly meetings have proved to be both interesting and helpful. We look forward to another year.

THE HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

The Home Economics Department has more divisions than it had previously.

The Junior Domestic Science classes which include the seventh and eighth grades, have been following a new plan according to the advice of the state. The first third of the year is devoted to clothing, the second third to the home and its problems and the last third to the simple preparation of foods. This plan has proven very successful and will be carried out in the future.

The Elementary Food classes have learned how to prepare five breakfasts, luncheons and dinners. For their yearly projects they made books containing the menus for one week, their nutritional values, cost and cost sheets and market orders.

The Elementary Clothing classes have made both summer and winter garments. But the greatest thing they did was to fill the Charity Box, remaking, repairing and laundering old garments, dressing dolls and making night gowns out of the material contributed by the P. T. A.

The Advance Food classes have studied the foods and the equipment of foreign countries, various types of invalid diets, pastry making and meat cookery. The main event for this class was a tea given in honor of the faculty, in which the factors of planning, preparing and entertaining were studied. Even the breads and bon-bons were made in school.

The enthusiasm of the students is greater than ever before. It was thought that due to the newness of the department last year the enrollment this year would not be so large. But the work of seventy boys and girls can testify to the value and interest in this course.

CLASS WILL

We the Senior Class of Lakewood High School, in full possession of sound mind, memory, and understanding do hereby make, declare, and publish this our last will and testament, on the eighth day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

Subject to the State laws of New York concerning the execution of wills we hereby will and bequeath to our lawful heirs and friends the following:

To our rightful successors, the Juniors, we will our brains, slightly used but in good condition in spite of the rusty cogs. (Separate the good from the bad and use your own judgment in applying your inheritance.)

To Mr. Mathewson, a private office in Lakewood High School.

To Miss Scheible we bequeath our appreciation for her three years of helpful sponsoring.

To Mrs. Babcock, our heartiest thanks for kindly directing the Senior Play.

To Miss Cook, one student who really enjoys Latin.

To Miss Cooper, a list of suggestions for her English students.

To Miss Sprague, a perfect class.

To Mr. Swanson, a formula for awaking his sleeping beauties in Geometry class, plus better luck to his Intermediate Class in years to come.

To Don Peake, Harold Soudan's beloved purple gym suit.

To Peggy Clark, Mary Lou's technique with men.

To Wilbur North, Kenneth Marsh's ability to pay attention in class.

To Elizabeth Madden, Jeanette Freed's will power in leaving men alone.

To Al Bowen, Robert Klock's magnetic power over women.

To Olive Rodda, Jennie Alexander's desire in finishing school.

To Shorty Irvine, Arthur Swanson's sophistication.

To Betty Jane Vernon, Madeline Russell's popularity.

To Kenneth Lewis, Lawrence Carlson's ability to write Western Thrillers.

To Edwin Bloomgren, a trip to Corry with Beth Borgerding.

To Norrie Anderson, Elial Catlin's trumpet as a souvenir while he is far away pursuing his musical career.

To Mary Hoover, Marjorie Corstange's blond tresses.

To Stanley Erickson, Hugh Clark's Master mind.

To M. F. and Betty S., Marian and Lillian kindly bequeath a friendship as everlasting and true as theirs is.

To Eddie Carlson, Ev. Dailey's date book and duplicate copies of his favorite love letters with full instructions as to use.

To Elsie Tibbitts, Flossie Falldine's slew of boy friends.

To Dick Jones, Robert Hitchcock's pleasing personality with the weaker sex.

To Margaret Brooks, Virginia Grigg's policy; "Speak when spoken to."

To Fat Guertin, Gilbert Johnson's graceful tennis playing.

To Margaret Baumgartner, Rhea Hobart's Spanish beauty.

To John Crumb, Bill McConnell's gracefulness.

To Jennie Falkner, Eleanor Olson's original wardrobe.

To Bob Bootey, Dick Nichols' success in managing the football team.

To Alice Crumb, Josephine Van Vleck's charming voice.

To Dunc Simons, Tom Purcell's numerous teminine admirers.

To Betty Ingerson, Helen Wheeler's good naturedness.

To Ruth Few, Martha Nelson's athletic ability.

We, the Seniors of 1933, knowing that they will faithfully and impartially carry out these our last wishes do appoint William Gron and Harry Le Bouf as executors.

This will be the last, final and ultimate will and testament of the about to be deceased Senior Class of Lakewood High in this year of 1933.

THE CLASS OF '33 — REINCARNATION

A score years hence I roamed a foreign shore,
And in an ancient market place I met;
A seer bowed down by years as if 'twere more,
Than human form could bear unbent.

His very look betrayed his trade, and as
My mind was torn and wracked by homesick thoughts,
I fought my path between the stinking mass,
Beside him waited 'till my glance he caught.

He half defined my purpose in a wink
And said, "My son, thy heart within thee aches
For home. Tell me thy troubles and I think,
Perhaps I can some consolation make."

His offer was a gift from heav'n above,
And eagerly I quickly made my plea
"I wish to know the fate of those I love,
My school mates of the class of thirty-three."

He answered me, "The power is not mine
To show the present fate of these thy friends.
My power is a far more subtle kind.
If thou would'st hear, to me attention lend."

A cult called Reincarnation says that
The soul lives more than once upon this earth,
And all ourselves have lived in times far back,
In bodies similar in height and girth.

Then from his battered magic bag he drew
A crystal vial with amber liquid filled.
Quoth he, "Here is the drug. 'Tis midnight dew,
Before thou dost retire drink this." He fled.

O'er come with joy my steps I homeward turned,
And reaching there I poured the flask into
A cup of wine, drank deep; ah, how it burned.
I senseless fell; sleep spread her morbid hue.

My dream placed me upon a dusty road,
In distance gleamed lofty snow white towers.
Before me trudged some monks in sack cloth robed.
Start eyes, Carlson and Marsh, by all the powers.

Me thought the place bore strange familiar look.
How and when had I seen that sight before?
My wanderings took me to a place where flocked
A crowd watching a scene of strife and gore.

Brave knights bore others to the earth, and they
Were none than Lord Purcell and Sir Catlin.
Four lovely maidens did their work repay,
The Misses Freed, Van Vleck, Coe and Falldine.

Proceeding on I came unto the moat;
And there saw guarding the castle portal,
The armoured figure clad in mailed coat,
Of that brave Lakewood son, Richard Nichols.

I wandered 'mongst the stonewalled corridors,
And many friendly faces saw I there.
The lasses, Wheeler, Griggs Alexander,
Swanson and Hitchcock did as squires appear.

A marble staircase filled the hallway's end.
Ascending I espied a gaudy court
Enthroned Hugh Clark did royal king pretend.
Dailey, the Sheriff, did of crimes report.

He charged, "Your majesty, these base varlets,"
Gib Johnson and Soudan they were I swear.
"Have shot your own deer in Sherwood forest."
The king, "Behead them, such I will not bear!"

The queen, Rhea Hobart, sat at his side.
The ladies Olsen, Corstange, Borgerding,
Russell, Drotz, and Peterson were espied
In her train. Klock, as ever, was jesting.

My classmates list was almost filled by now.
A girl, a boy, alone remained unfound.
Then I saw her as nobles to her bowed,
Grand Duchess Nelson from a foreign land.

But where was I among this weird masque?
I searched in vain, I was not with the rest.
My whereabouts from them I then did ask.
No sound, their silence was the hush of death.

They pointed, high upon the battlements,
A sun-dried corpse, by sharp iron hook upheld.
Beneath it read, "Beware, Sinners Repent."
I looked once more, I gasped, it was myself!

—W. C. Mc. '33.

Mrs. Peake—(To inmate of Asylum) "My good man, why do you smoke so much?"

Inmate—"Sh, there's a cough in the second carload and I'm trying to find it."

Mr. Swanson—(coming into one of his classess a little late found a very uncomplimentary caricature of himself on the board. Turning to a student he angrily inquired)—"Do you know who is responsible for this atrocity?"

"No, Sir, replied the student, but I strongly suspect his parents."

Little Willie was attending Baccalaureate Service with his father when the minister knelt and said a prayer.

"Daddy, why does that man pray for the school?"

"He doesn't, he looks at the faculty and prays for the students."

SPORTS

BASKETBALL

Although this year's team failed to win the league championship, it topped off a good season by winning the Celoron tournament. The team won 12 games and lost nine, the relative totals being 458 to 434 points in our favor.

Basketball—County League Champs, 1929-30; County Champs, Class B, 1929-30; Celeron Tournament Winner, 1931-32-33.

INTER-CLASS

Touch Football was played at noon hours and the Sophomores won all their games.

The Sophomores were also undefeated in Basketball. The following players composed the Spring squad:

Hudson	Seekins	Bennett
Butler	Jones	Carlson

Inter-class Track, Softball, and Tennis will be held during the remainder of the year.

During the past year pupils bringing their lunch every day formed a six team league of Volleyball. A four team league of Basketball was also played. No definite champions were decided.

TRACK

Lakewood should have a very good team this year. If we win the class B meet this year we will gain the trophy permanently. Lakewood and Chautauqua have each won it for two years and the winner for three years will keep it. The following boys will be in the meet this year:

Burke—Pole Vault and High Jump.	Bennett—220.
Dailey—Pole Vault and Broad Jump.	Nichols—Mile.
V. Nelson—Half Mile and 220.	Keefe—440
James—Half Mile.	Simons—Shot Put.
Hudson—Mile.

Morrison, a Falconer transfer shows promise in the shot put and 220. Paton has shown good form in the hurdles. So far we are scheduled for two meets before the County meet.

VOLLEY BALL

Lakewood went to Dunkirk after only two practices and placed second. Falconer, Cherry Creek, and Ripley were victims of our boys superior ability but we in turn were defeated by Dunkirk who has held the championship for several years.

FOOTBALL

Although we received several defeats this year in our major sport, Lakewood can show a good record. Many of the teams outclassed us but few of them managed to outplay us. All the home games were played at night under the flood lights and as always attracted large crowds.

Lakewood 47—Silver Creek 21

This was our first game of the season and Silver Creek's first game. In the first half Lakewood's first piled up a 21-0 score and the second and third teams managed to add a considerable gain to the score.

Little Valley 9—Lakewood 6

The old timers prophesied that this game would be our toughest and it was just that. At the half the score was 6-6. Vernie Waid was injured in the fourth and was replaced by North who showed splendid form. In the last few minutes of play Little Valley successfully pulled the trick that we had watched for, a field goal from the thirty-five yard line, a beautiful kick. This placed the score 9-6 and came too late to be remedied.

Lakewood 18—Tidioute 6

This was our first out of town game and we ran into a rather bowl shaped field bound on one side by a stream and the other by a rocky hill. The second team brought home the bacon in fine style although they rather lost speed in front of the goal posts.

Lakewood 12—Salamanca 7

Lakewood played this game on a field like a golf green in the encouraging strains of Salamanca's band. In the first three minutes Morrison blocked a punt for a score of six points. In the second Salamanca changed the score to 7-6. Lakewood scored a second time in the fourth making the final score and our boys went home satisfied.

Jamestown Reserves 7—Lakewood 0

Turned out to be a hard fought game on home ground. The score hung 0-0 until the last two minutes of play when Jamestown galloped through for a touchdown and extra point. At the end of the game Lakewood had fought the ball back to Jamestown's 2 yd. line. The spectator's sat down for the first time since the game started when the final whistle blew.

Alleghany 13—Lakewood 0

Alleghany won this game in a sea of mud. Lakewood's pep seemed to be all gone and when the second string took the field in the last they showed the first speed of the whole game.

Lakewood 33—St. Bernard 13

St. Bernard led in the first half but in the second Lakewood showed a spirit that hadn't been with them for a long time and came up the field like a steam roller. The second team also had a hand in the victory.

Warren Reserves 13—Lakewood 7

Like a previous home game we had Warren in the sock until they blocked a punt and ran for a touchdown in the last two minutes.

Lakewood 21—Warren 0

A rather easy out of town game in which our passing attack ticked like a watch with good results.

Lakewood 0—Falconer 0

The big game of the season played at Washington field on Thanksgiving day. Both teams' band were there with a big crowd. The play was very even, probably due to the slow soggy field. Falconer did not get the ball inside our thirty. This is the fourth year that Falconer has failed to put any numbers on their side of the score board.

Lakewood 0—Jamestown 0

The above was only for a quarter but is something to be proud of. This was a charity game in which Falconer played the first quarter and held Jamestown scoreless. Lakewood played the second. Johnson deserves credit for the many times he managed to stop Jamestown's plunges. In the last half a combined team of members of both Falconer and Lakewood made an excellent showing against Jamestown.

The following boys received letters:

Simons	Guerton	V. Waid	Irvine	Johnson	Kramer
(Honorary Captain)	Clark	Dailey	Jones	McConnell	James
Burk	Knowlton	Catlin	Nelson	Purcell	North
Nichols	Morrison	Keefe	Hitchcock	M. Waid

Managers for this year are Jack Smith and Ross Butler. Robert Boote and Paul Warner have the offices for next year.

Burk, Nichols, Johnson, Clark, Purcell, McConnell, Waid, Dailey, and Catlin will not be with us next year and we are going to miss all those familiar faces on the squad. Some of these players have only played two years and will not be eligible because of the Post-Grad Ruling. This is somewhat of a handicap as most of the other schools do not have this ruling.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Girls' sports this year are just beginning. Basketball season was very interesting, the Sophomores winning the tournament. These girls have the privilege of having their names engraved on a silver cup which has for the past four years borne the present P. G.'s initials.

The Hiking Club has had breakfast and supper hikes about every two weeks when there was good weather.

Just as soon as the lake warms up the pupils in Miss Scheible's two classes will attempt to learn the Red Cross method of Life-saving. Tennis, Volleyball and Soft Ball will be starting soon. The tennis court is being repaired so that a tournament may be held, and if things turn out as we hope they will, there should be several out of town games and a county meet.

Soft Ball and Volleyball have not been so popular as the other sports but perhaps next year there will be tournaments in these also. Before the school term ends a track meet will be held.

Winnie Peake—"Did you answer the 'phone this morning when it rang?"

Don Peake—"Gosh, no. I thought it was the alarm clock and didn't get up."

Madeline Russell—"Now see here officer, I was proceeding with a green light at a very moderate speed and this man ran into me. Yet you say that it was my fault."

Officer—"It certainly was and you can never make me believe otherwise."

Madeline—"Oh, how can you say that?"

Officer—"Well his father is the mayor, his brother is the chief of police, and I go with his sister."

Sam—"Is yo dog hurt, Rastus?"

Rastus—"Naw, just plumb lazy."

Sam—"What makes him holler like that?"

Rastus—"Just lazy, he's sittin' on a thorn an' won't move."

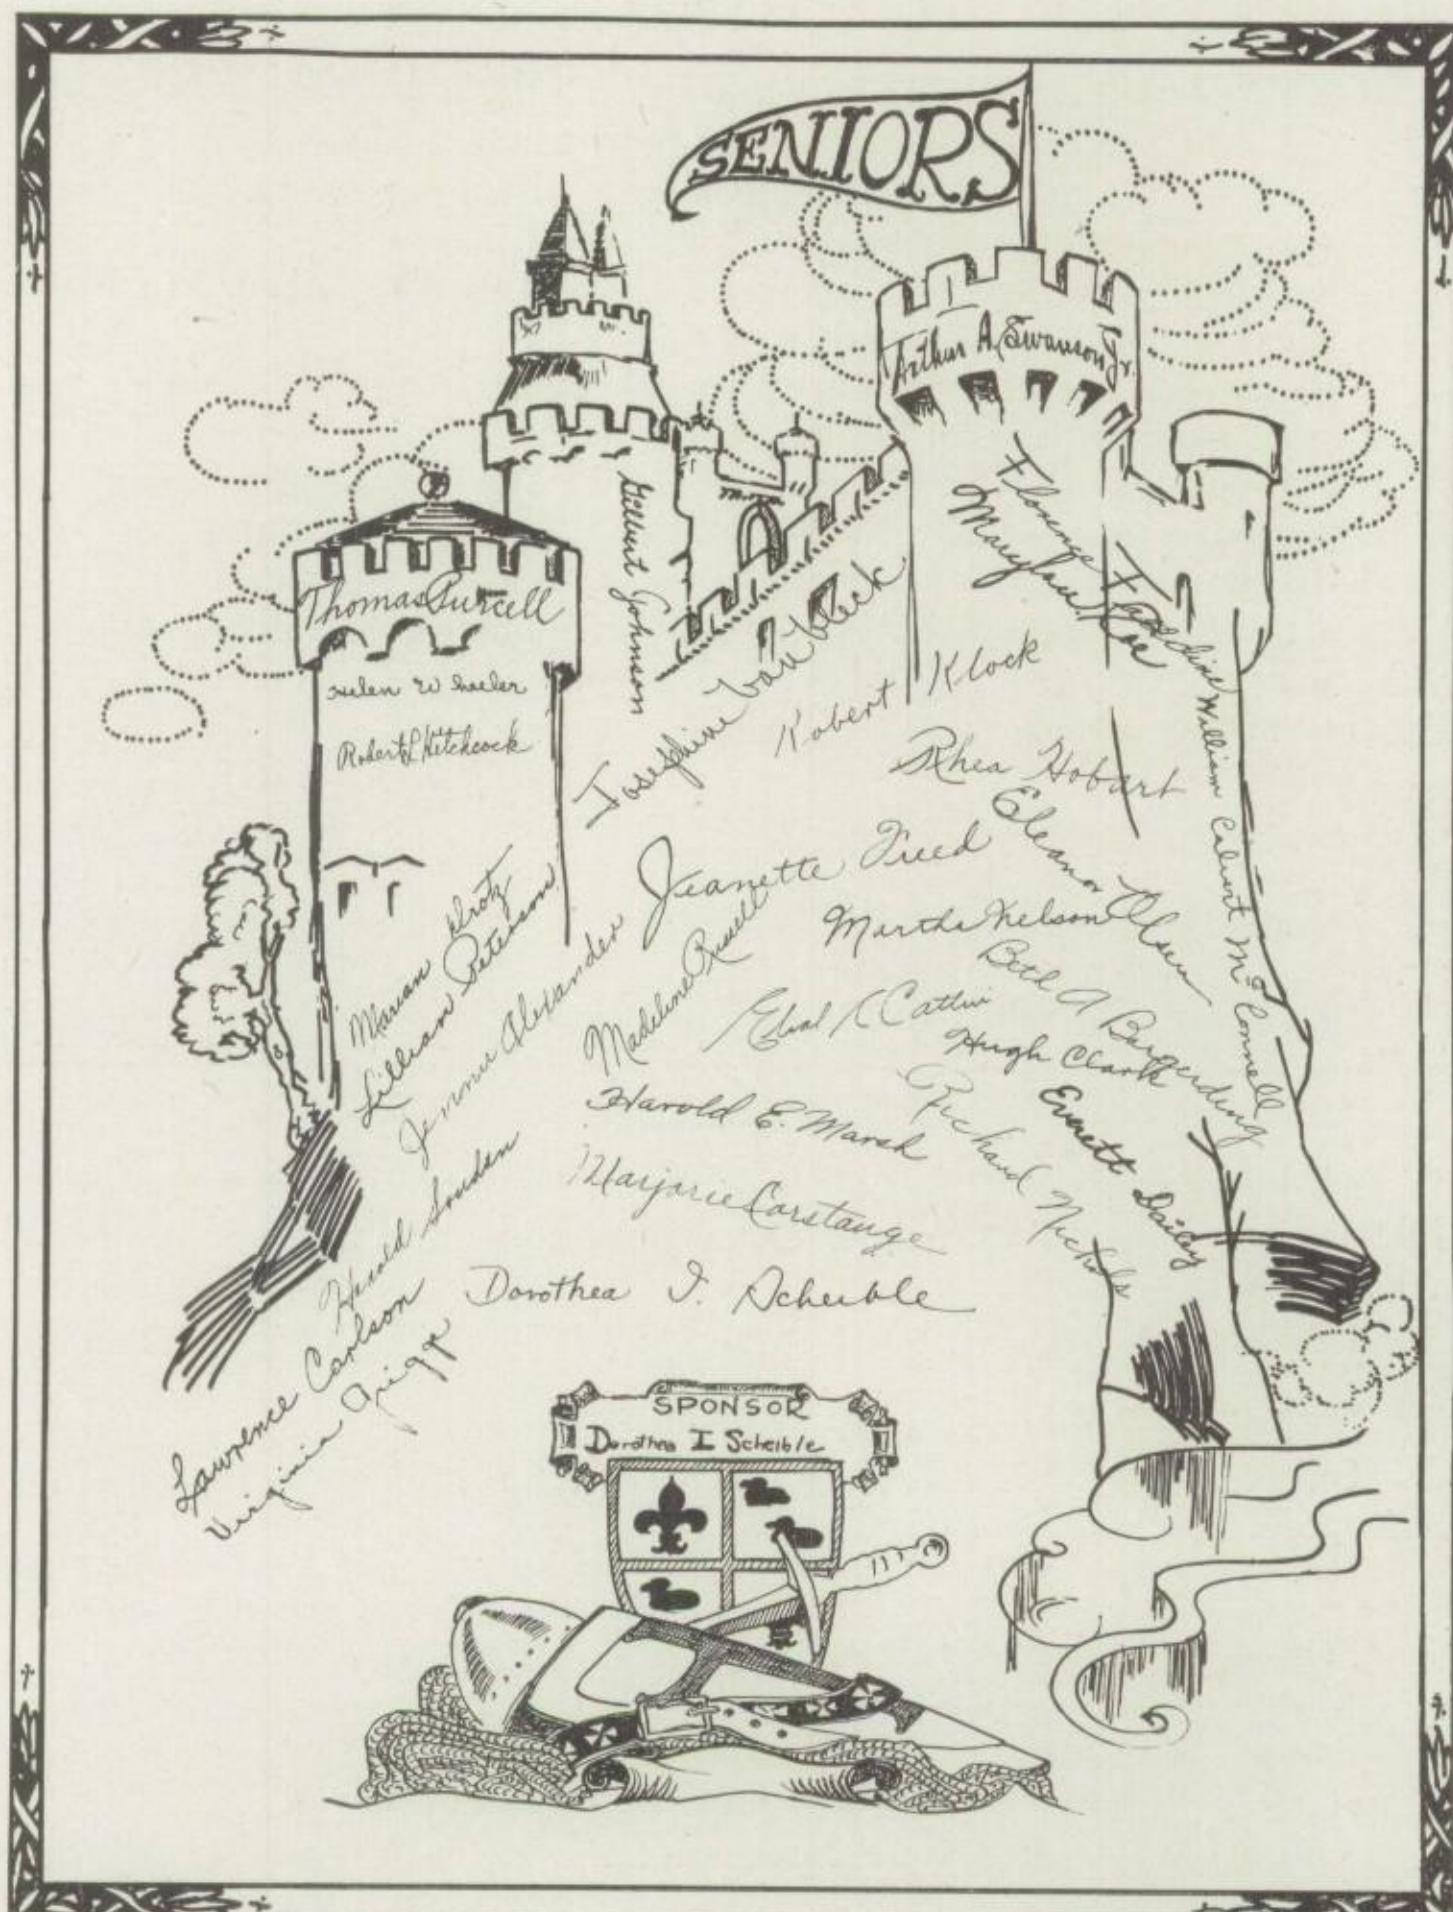

Old Lady—(to boy in puddle) "Get out of that water immediately."

Hank Gardener—"Aw find one for yourself.

Lady in fruit store—"A dozen apples please."

Grocer—"Yes mam, Baldwin's?"

Lady—"Of course, do you think I want hair on them?"

First Alumnus—"Who is that awful looking frump over there?"

Second Alumnus—"Oh, that, that's my wife."

First Alumnus—"Oh, er, pardon me, my mistake."

Second Alumnus—"No, no, mine."

New girl—"You remind me so much of Valentino."

Art Swanson (Thrilled)—"But he's dead."

New one—"Yes, I know."

Senior—"What happened to the girl in the white cotton stockings?"

Frosh—"I'll bite, what did?"

Senior—"Not a thing, not a darn thing."

Old lady (watching tug of war)—"But wouldn't it be much simpler if they took a knife and cut it?"

Mr. Coe—"Daughter, I'm afraid that I shall never see you in heaven."

Mary Lou—"What have you been up to now, Pop?"

Sweet young thing—"And while you ask daddy I'll play something jolly on the piano."

Bill McConnell—"I shouldn't if I were you, some people just can't keep their feet still when they hear music."

TAKEN FROM A 1904 ANNUAL

When first I kissed sweet Margaret
 She blushed rose red and sternly said,
 "You mustn't; Stop!"

Last night I kissed sweet Margaret
 She blushed rose red and simply said,
 "You mustn't stop."

Said the widow, a sweet young Mrs.
 "Sir, I really don't know what a krs."
 Then the bold man in haste,
 Put his arm around her waist,
 And exclaimed, "My dear Madam, thrs."

(Scene: the summit of Vesuvius)
 American tourist—"Great snakes, it reminds me of hell!"
 English tourist—"Gad, how these Americans do travel."

The year has gloomly begun
 For Willie Weeks, a poor man's Sun.

He was beset with bill and dun
 And he had very little Mon.

This cash, said he, won't pay my dues
 I've nothing here but ones and Tues.

A bright thought struck him and he said,
 The rich Miss Goldrocks I will Wed.

But when he paid his court to her
 She lisped but firmly said, "No." Thur.

Alas, said he, then I must die,
 His soul's went where they say souls Fri.

They found his gloves, and coat and hat
 The coroner upon them Sat.

My parents told me not to smoke
 Nor listen to a naughty joke.....I Don't.
 They told me it was wrong to wink
 At pretty girls, or even think
 Of intoxicating drink.....I Don't
 To drink and flirt is very wrong.
 Wild boys choose women, wine, and song.....I Don't.
 I kiss no girls, not even one.
 In fact I don't know how it's done.
 You wouldn't think I have much fun.....I Don't.
